Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

you can report GBV cases at any police station in Zambia? The Victim Support Unit (VSU), available in police stations nationwide, provides legal advice, counseling, and referrals for survivors.

www.projectscreamfoundation.org

Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

There are toll-free numbers for immediate help for GBV? Dial 933 for Lifeline Zambia's counseling services, or 116 to report cases involving children

www.projectscreamfoundation.org

Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

Zambia has One-Stop Centers for GBV survivors? These centers provide integrated services, including medical care, psychological support, and legal

www.projectscreamfoundation.org

Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

you can access medical services for GBV-related injuries? Health facilities across Zambia provide treatment, including Post-Exposure Prophylaxis (PEP) to prevent HIV infection

www.projectscreamfoundation.org

Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

Many GBV cases go unreported due to stigma and fear

www.projectscreamfoundation.org

Project Scream Foundation

#16DAYSOFACTIVISM

Did You Know?

A significant portion of GBV victims are children, with girls making up 74.3% of the child victims. This highlights the gendered nature of

www.projectscreamfoundation.org